University of California Berkeley
International Conference on Cosmopolitanism, Human Rights, and Sovereignty in the New Europe
Institute of European Studies, UC-Berkeley
Center for Global, International, and Regional Studies UC, Santa Cruz
May 4 and 5, 2001
Gaballe Room, Townsend Center, Stephens Hall

Conference Directors:
Renate Holub, Director, Interdisciplinary Studies, UC-Berkeley
Paul Lubeck, Director, Center for Global, International, and Regional Studies, UC-Santa Cruz

Preliminary Program:
Friday, May 4, 2001
11:30-12:00 Introduction: Paul Lubeck, UCSC and Renate Holub, UCB

Panel I: 12:00-1:30 Conference Address
Manuel Castells, UCB
Identity-building as a Material Process:
The construction of the European Identity
in a Global Context.
Chair: Renate Holub, UCB

Panel II. 1:45-3:45 The Politics of Euro-Islam
Chair: Paul Lubeck, UCSC
Joergen Nielson, University of Birmingham, U.K
"Religious Rights and Human Rights of Citizens"
Farish Noor, Free University, Berlin, Germany
"Immigrants in Europe and Muslims in the World"
Hakan Yavuz, University of Utah, Salt Lake City
"European Imaginations of the Turkish Nurgu"
Jocelyne Cesari, Columbia University
"Islam in Europe: Real and Imagined Problems"
Respondent: Larry Michalak, UCB

Panel III. 4:00-6:00 Sovereignty in the New Europe
Chair: Michel Laguerre, UCB
Ronnie Lipschutz, UCSC
"Identity and Sovereignty"
Isabel Carvalhais, University of Warwick, UK
"Transnational Sovereignty"
Adrian Favell, University of Sussex, UK
"Professional Class and Sovereignty"
Respondent: David Hooson, UCB

6:15 Reception - Townsend Center Terrace

Saturday, May 5
Panel IV. 9:00-11:30 Reconceptualizing the Mediterranean
Chair: Edmund Burke III, UCSC

Olivier Kramsch, University of Nijmegen – Netherlands
"Towards a Mediterranean Scale of Governance: Urban Networks across the Inner Sea"

Julia Clancy-Smith, Univ. of Arizona, Tucson
"Trans-Mediterranean Migrations to 19th Century North Africa"

Caglar Keyder, SUNY-Binghampton
"Threatened Identities and the Eastern Mediterranean"

Respondents: Franco Farinelli, University of Bologna, Italy
Pasquale Verdicchio, UCSD

Panel V: 12:00-2:00 Keynote Address

Alain Touraine, Paris, France
"Is it Possible to Create a European Citizenship?"

Chair: Manuel Castells, UCB

Panel VI 2:30-4:30 Cosmopolitanism and Multiculturalism
Chair: Paola Sensi-Isolani, St Mary's College, California

Ursula Apitzsch, University of Frankfurt, Germany
"Religious Traditionality in Multicultural Europe"

Renate Holub, UCB
"Traditional and Organic Intellectuals in Multicultural Europe"

Norbert Bilbeny, University of Barcelona, Spain
"The Role of Intercultural Ethics for a Democratic European Citizenship"

4:30-4:45 Concluding Remarks: Paul Lubeck, UCSC and Renate Holub UCB

Co-sponsored by
The Institute of International Studies
The Center for Middle Eastern Studies
With the Support of:

The Office of the Dean of the Humanities
The Office of the Dean of Social Sciences
The Department of History
The Department of Italian Studies
The Department of German Studies
The Department of Spanish and Portuguese and
The Program in Interdisciplinary Studies (ISF)